”Mad Artwork is already one of the most interesting bands in their genre” – UNT, 2011

The young rewarded Swedish band MAD ARTWORK are releasing their debut album ‘I Still Breathe’ on Copro Records (<http://www.coprorecords.co.uk/>).

Official release date 10th of October. Release party at the prestigious venue Katalin, Uppsala Sweden. They will then head on straight to UK to start their I Still Breathe tour.

Mad Artwork is a rock band based in Uppsala, Sweden. With heavy riffs, beautiful melodies and lots of mad whims they create their own limitless rock. Someone might think it sounds like a mix between Deep Purple and Yes, someone else percieve a mix of Opeth and Audioslave while a third one might think ‘Wow, no boundaries, everything’s allowed!’. A female singer with a voice like never heard before, virtuos playing, shifting emotions shaped within the songs, burning guitar solos and an Irish Bouzouki from hell...everything performed with a great deal of passion, attitude and humor. This band has something for everyone!

2007 Mad Artwork won the first prize in Swedens biggest music competition for youngsters, Musik Direkt, with the song ‘See What There Is’, which can be found on their debut album. 2009 they won the first prize in Musik Direkt once again with the song ‘I Still Breathe’. 2011 the band received a prestigious award in their hometown Uppsala for their hard and dedicated work.

The founder, leader and guitarplayer Gabbi Dluzewski says: ”It’s a joy for me listening to the result of our work, finally being able to share this album with all present and future fans. I started recording ”I Still Breathe” in 2008 when I was 17 years old...and even though much have happened since then I still can’t think of a better way to celebrate Mad Artworks’ 9th year anniversary than releasing ”I Still Breathe”. We are now heading towards new adventures in taking our concept and musical ideas even further. And – which is even more important – in proceeding the sharing of our music with all of you out there!”
